

Holt County Sentinel

OREGON, MISSOURI
FRIDAY, JANUARY 15, 1875.
Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs Railroad.

Time Table No. 16.
Taking effect Sunday, November 16th, 1874.

GOING NORTH.
Leave Forest City:
Holt and Express, No. 1, 7:40 a. m.
Night Express, No. 2, 10:00 a. m.
Freight, No. 3, 11:00 a. m.
Leave Forest City:
Holt and Express, No. 4, 11:35 a. m.
Night Express, No. 5, 1:00 p. m.
Freight, No. 6, 2:00 p. m.
Leave Forest City:
Holt and Express, No. 7, 3:40 p. m.
Night Express, No. 8, 6:00 p. m.
Freight, No. 9, 7:00 p. m.

COMING SOUTH.
Leave Forest City:
Holt and Express, No. 10, 7:40 a. m.
Night Express, No. 11, 10:00 a. m.
Freight, No. 12, 11:00 a. m.
Leave Forest City:
Holt and Express, No. 13, 11:35 a. m.
Night Express, No. 14, 1:00 p. m.
Freight, No. 15, 2:00 p. m.
Leave Forest City:
Holt and Express, No. 16, 3:40 p. m.
Night Express, No. 17, 6:00 p. m.
Freight, No. 18, 7:00 p. m.

Terms of the Circuit Court.
Regular Term, 30 days in April, August and December of every year.

Terms of the County Court.
Regular Term, 1st Mondays in February, May, August and November of every year.

Terms of Probate Court.
Regular Term, 2nd Mondays in January, April, July and October of every year.

25 cts. a Meal.
For a good square meal, at 25 cents only, go to Mrs. F. HALL.

Rev. D. J. Holmes, of St. Joseph, will deliver his popular lecture on "Marriage, the false and the true," in Oregon, on Thursday the 21st of Jan. We hope the citizens will turn out. A rare treat is in store for them.

Admission free, 25c.

TUESDAY, JAN. 26th.

Election of Delegates to the Constitutional Convention, Tuesday Jan. 26th.

Go to your place of voting, and cast a ballot for Thomas J. Johnson, of Nodaway county, and Malcom McKillop of Atchison county.

Notice.

You man that elumb in at my shop window and took a gun out, unless you come up and pay for repairs and this notice, or else I will put the law in force.

Wm. BALL.

Down the Embankment.

On the 13th instant David Foster, the senior proprietor of the Oregon livery stable, met with quite an accident on the public road between Forest City and Oregon. He was in charge of a two-horse team and open buggy, bound for Oregon. He had reached the middle of the great embankment near Mrs. Pike's, when he caught up with a team, and whilst trying to drive around it, the wheels of buggy "got over" and Mr. Foster fell out and rolled down the embankment some twenty feet, receiving several ugly cuts on face and head, and knocking him senseless for a time. The horses pulled the buggy out and made for home in a hurry, minus their driver. Mr. Foster's injuries are serious, but not dangerous.

If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-dressed alcohol for dyspepsia, biliousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want medicine, not a barrel of California Bitters, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Elixir." Reject all the "Tonic" and "Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it.

25c

NICKEL SILVER

IS GOOD.

But the ladies of Oregon and vicinity have concluded that the Queensware, Glassware, Cutlery, &c. for sale by Wm. Baskins, is much better, as durable and cheaper; and if any of you doubt it, just go and see for yourselves.

25c

Accident at School.

Stephen Blanchard, teacher of the Rising Sun School, Whig Valley, met with a serious, though not fatal accident, on the 8th. Several of the larger school boys, thinking to have a little sport at the expense of the "old man," placed a blank cartridge in the drum of the stove. The cartridge being heavily charged with powder and good sized shot, exploded with a terrific crash. One of the boys struck Mr. Blanchard on the forehead, and several other shots penetrated the blackboard behind Mr. B.'s head. Fortunately for Mr. Blanchard, his skull-bone proved too much for the shot, and it was not broken, or it might have killed him. The patient bled very profusely. The ill-fated school boys were expelled from school by the Board of Directors.

Jan. 13th, Alex. Chambers, who has been engaged at the new mill situated 34 miles east of Oregon, and his right leg broken above the ankle in two places. The saw caught a board and pushed it against the leg, crushing it as above stated. The break extends two-thirds up the leg, and is exceedingly dangerous. The patient was at Harrison Russell's and is being treated by Drs. Stone & Goslin.

On the same day a young man named Miller, with at Robert Patterson, cut his left foot nearly in two with an ax; he bled freely to death before the arrival of the surgeon.

Sunday the 10th instant, a daughter of John Princehouse aged 7, fell on the ice and broke her left arm; she is doing as well as can be expected.

Ira D. Stoddard's.

JEWELRY & WATCHES.
Keeps constantly on hand a large supply of Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, &c., which he will dispose of at very low rates. All parties wishing anything in his line will do well to call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere. Repairing of watches and jewelry, a specialty.

Proceedings of Holt Circuit Court.

December Term, 1874.

Judge Henry S. Kelly on the bench. Below is a list of Jurymen, regular panel:

GRAND JURORS—James A. Keever, foreman; A. B. Wellton, Mark Strickler, Joseph Hodgins, M. T. Collins, John Bunz, Peter Riley, Wm. Hoblitzell, Henry C. Miller, James L. Allen, James Curtis, Jr., Wm. Wright, John S. Swope, John Buck, Samuel Crow, John H. Baldwin—18.

PEITY JURORS—J. M. Lewis, J. E. Caton, Daniel Gillis, Mort Houston, Elliott Davis, J. M. Trimble, J. J. Crews, R. O. Graves, D. H. Terry, N. F. Murry, R. O. Cowan, R. E. Dunn, Z. J. Eueret, Wm. Lawrence, John Gibson, Chas. Wiley, George Trill, J. Mauck, Daniel Evans, Samuel Foster—20.

Below we give a list of the cases which came up for trial at this term and what disposition was made of them.

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

State against Robert Stewart. Selling liquor on Sunday. Submitted to jury. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. Josephus Grimes. Assault with intent to kill. Tried by jury. Verdict guilty. Fine $100 and three months imprisonment in county jail.

State vs. James Ramsey, et al. Assault with intent to kill. Continued by defendants.

State vs. John McRoberts and Henry Raber. Grand Larceny. Nolle prossed.

State vs. James Wilson and Michael Donahue. Grand Larceny. Stricken for docket.

State vs. John G. Maguire. Fraud, &c. Defendant dismissed by State.

State vs. William H. Stallworth. Assault with intent to kill. Continued by State.

State vs. Frank Bridgman, et al. Murder. Continued by State.

State vs. Henry Raber. Selling liquor without license. Plead guilty. Fined $40.

State vs. Richard Jackson. Selling liquor without license. Tried by jury. Verdict guilty. Fined $50.

State vs. John F. Moreton. Recognizance forfeited.

State vs. James Brown. Assault with intent to kill. No bill.

State vs. Mathew Saville. Assault with intent to kill. No bill.

State vs. Theodore Young. Assault with intent to kill. No bill.

State vs. Philip Vandermast and Albert Ascendor. Assault with intent to kill. Bill found.

State vs. Lawrence McCrory. Assault with intent to kill. No bill.

State vs. Wm. D. Shields. Destroying fence. Bill found. Tried by jury. Verdict not guilty.

State vs. Wm. E. Bradley and Edward Roland. Grand Larceny. Bill found.

State vs. George Cummins. Failing as road overseer. Indictment Squashed.

State vs. Aaron Punsen. Assault and battery. Dismissed costs to prosecuting witnesses.

State vs. James Brainerd. Assault and battery. Continued by state.

State vs. Joseph Hoblitzell. Assault and battery. Dismissed. Costs to prosecuting witnesses.

GRAND JURY CASES.

State vs. Robert Reed. Disturbing peace of family. No bill found.

State vs. Joseph Nowles. Petit larceny. No bill found.

State vs. James and Geo. Varvel. Shooting horse. Bill found. Ples not guilty. Trial of Geo. Varvel by jury. Guilty. Fined $20. Nolle pros as to J. Varvel.

State vs. Thomas Kirk. Shooting horse. No bill.

State vs. Michael Fitzmaurice. Assault with intent to kill. Bill found. Continued by defendant. Bond $800.

State vs. John Stephenson, et al. Assault with intent to kill. Bill found. Continued by defendant. Bond $800.

CIVIL DOCKET.

Joseph Faulkner vs. Joseph M. Allen. Partition. Continued.

Fannie Ralston vs. John Quinn. Slander. Dismissed by agreement. Defendant pays costs.

Wm. Herria vs. K. C. St. Joe. & C. B. R. R. Civil action. Continued by agreement.

Samuel Ensworth vs. Railroad. Civil action. Continued by agreement.

Seth and Wm. Cable vs. Railroad. Civil action. Continued by agreement.

Martha D. Archer, et al. vs. John Sanders, et al. Partition. Continued by agreement.

John Zook, administrator of Joel Baldwin, vs. Eli Bloomfield, et al. Injunction. Injunction granted. Made perpetual.

Daniel Janglin vs. Wm. W. Watkins. Civil action. Continued.

Thomas Fry vs. James Howell. Civil action. Tried by court. Judgment for Plaintiff, $50.

John Sims vs. Railroad. Civil action. Judgment by agreement for $30.

William Marshall vs. Charles J. Price, et al. Civil action. Judgment for Plaintiff. Appeal to Supreme Court.

May E. Neely, et al. vs. John Glenn and George Glenn. Civil action. Continued.

Joshua Sedwick vs. Railroad. Civil action. Continued at cost of defendant.

Joel Baldwin vs. H. C. Merrick, et al. Civil action. Plaintiff dismisses ar.

Joseph Young vs. Anton W. Delitz, et al. Attachment. Plaintiff dismisses suit.

Uldmond Erwin vs. Louisa Erwin, et al. Partition. Granted and sale ordered.

Jacob Finckel vs. Oregon School Board. Foreclose mechanic lien. Continued.

James H. Birch vs. George Gillis. Civil action. Continued.

James Griffith vs. Ann Griffith, et al. Partition. Partition granted.

State of Mo. to use of Harvey D.

County News.

George Hobson who resides 24 miles south of Oregon, has for the last ten days, suffered intensely by reason of a cartth in one of his hands. The hand has swollen fearfully, and broke both in the palm and back of hand.

Craig, Mo., boasts of a man now 64 years of age, who has accumulated a handsome property, and he has never gone in debt, never gave a note and has never been a witness in court.—St. Joe Standard.

We regret to learn that our esteemed friend, James Browning, brother of Napoleon Browning, is afflicted with the Arkansas fever. We hope he may soon get over it and make up his mind to stay in Holt.

Acres Win.—It is said "four acres always win." Mr. A. P. Davenport, of Craig, is a little proud of his new mill, the Holt County Steam Flour Mill, which he has just finished at that place. He intends to make only the best family flour, and that he may be sure to win, he will brand the same "Four Acres." He will produce, also, "Three Acres," and he proposes to make an enviable reputation for these brands of flour from his mill. As he will do custom work, the farmers in that section will find the steam mill always ready to "grind a grain," and the business men of Craig town soon learn that a steam flour mill is a mine of wealth to their growing town.—St. Joseph Standard.

Gen. Geo. H. Hall of St. Joe, came up on Friday, the 8th, intending to take a look at a piece of land which he owns in the central portion of the county. The weather turned suddenly very cold compelling the General to abandon his pleasure trip. He took refuge under the hospitable roof of Andy Meyer, who entertained his guest with, the best that Holt county afforded. In the morning, whilst the thermometer stood at 20° below zero, Mr. Meyer accompanied the General to town, where they paid their compliments to the Sheriff's Office. They thought Old Boreas was doing his prettiest to freshen up the atmosphere for this part of the world.

James Curtis, sr., and James Curtis, Jr., consummated a trade the other day by which the junior got possession of the old family homestead and the 125 acres of land connected therewith.

Bertha, infant daughter of August Berres of this city departed this life December 27th, aged, only two weeks.

The severe weather of Friday and Saturday last week was "rough" on the porkers that were driven to the railroad station at Forbes. Quite a number of hogs perished from the cold. John Kunkel, seven head, and Messrs. John Hornecker, Young, Kurtz, Reynolds lost each one hog. There is great dissatisfaction among the farmers in the manner in which the agent of the Kansas City firm that engaged the hogs, treated them. He had agreed to receive the hogs on Friday, but did not do it until Saturday. During the severe night between Friday and Saturday many of the hogs lost their grade by shrinkage. It is alleged that our farmers lost hundreds of dollars by the loss of grade.

Our friends in East Rulo, Holt county, had a great good time at one of the neighbor's houses on New Years day. Our young folks were there in force, accompanied by their fathers and mothers. And the oldest settlers say they never had such a good time. The entertainment wound up by the landlord kissing all the old ladies present.

A rather singular death occurred in Rosh Bottom on the 9th of January. The infant child of John and Mary Gunkel, aged five months, was found dead at the side of its mother. The child was apparently in a healthy state, and no premonitory symptoms of disease had been noticed. Imagine the surprise of the parents, when the little pilgrim was discovered to be cold in death!

We regret to learn that Wm. Brown, one of the oldest citizens of Holt county, of the East Rulo settlement, is seriously prostrated with pneumonia fever. His son James is also sick with a severe bilious attack. The continued indisposition of Mr. Brown has very materially reduced him in circumstances, and his farm has gone to waste for want of attention.

We met Amos Stevens, son of Robt. Stevens, at the installation at woods the other night. He resides in Smith county, Kansas, and from him we gather much useful information concerning that interesting portion of the West.

A Mr. Act of Sumner county, Kansas, is sojourning temporarily in this county. Sumner county joins the Cherokee Nation, and has an abundance of good land, water and timber. The grasshoppers did not devastate that far south.

Jefferson Drake, the attentive janitor of our public school building, is an early riser. The colder the weather the earlier he has to get up, to enable him to heat the furnaces and warm up the school rooms. Nothing like being up and doing.

Wallace Downs, is one of the canvassing agents in Holt county for that interesting book, the Moral History of America's Life Struggle. He also canvasses for the book entitled, The True History of the Brooklyn Scandal.

Eddie, a three year old son of Edward Richards of Benton township, departed this life on the 29th day of December—cause croup.

They have an interesting slugging class at the Culps' School House, with a Mr. McCallen, of Kansas, as teacher. It meets every Tuesday and Saturday evening.

Master Willie Wilson caught a live owl the other day in his father's barn. When the bird was taken to the house it gave "up the ghost."

The "week of prayer" which was observed at the German Church in this city, closed last Sunday night. This week a protracted meeting has been commenced which promises to be productive of much good.

The County Court will convene in this city next Monday, the 18th.

The holiday vacation being over,

County News.

George Hobson who resides 24 miles south of Oregon, has for the last ten days, suffered intensely by reason of a cartth in one of his hands. The hand has swollen fearfully, and broke both in the palm and back of hand.

Craig, Mo., boasts of a man now 64 years of age, who has accumulated a handsome property, and he has never gone in debt, never gave a note and has never been a witness in court.—St. Joe Standard.

We regret to learn that our esteemed friend, James Browning, brother of Napoleon Browning, is afflicted with the Arkansas fever. We hope he may soon get over it and make up his mind to stay in Holt.

Acres Win.—It is said "four acres always win." Mr. A. P. Davenport, of Craig, is a little proud of his new mill, the Holt County Steam Flour Mill, which he has just finished at that place. He intends to make only the best family flour, and that he may be sure to win, he will brand the same "Four Acres." He will produce, also, "Three Acres," and he proposes to make an enviable reputation for these brands of flour from his mill. As he will do custom work, the farmers in that section will find the steam mill always ready to "grind a grain," and the business men of Craig town soon learn that a steam flour mill is a mine of wealth to their growing town.—St. Joseph Standard.

Gen. Geo. H. Hall of St. Joe, came up on Friday, the 8th, intending to take a look at a piece of land which he owns in the central portion of the county. The weather turned suddenly very cold compelling the General to abandon his pleasure trip. He took refuge under the hospitable roof of Andy Meyer, who entertained his guest with, the best that Holt county afforded. In the morning, whilst the thermometer stood at 20° below zero, Mr. Meyer accompanied the General to town, where they paid their compliments to the Sheriff's Office. They thought Old Boreas was doing his prettiest to freshen up the atmosphere for this part of the world.

James Curtis, sr., and James Curtis, Jr., consummated a trade the other day by which the junior got possession of the old family homestead and the 125 acres of land connected therewith.

Bertha, infant daughter of August Berres of this city departed this life December 27th, aged, only two weeks.

The severe weather of Friday and Saturday last week was "rough" on the porkers that were driven to the railroad station at Forbes. Quite a number of hogs perished from the cold. John Kunkel, seven head, and Messrs. John Hornecker, Young, Kurtz, Reynolds lost each one hog. There is great dissatisfaction among the farmers in the manner in which the agent of the Kansas City firm that engaged the hogs, treated them. He had agreed to receive the hogs on Friday, but did not do it until Saturday. During the severe night between Friday and Saturday many of the hogs lost their grade by shrinkage. It is alleged that our farmers lost hundreds of dollars by the loss of grade.

Our friends in East Rulo, Holt county, had a great good time at one of the neighbor's houses on New Years day. Our young folks were there in force, accompanied by their fathers and mothers. And the oldest settlers say they never had such a good time. The entertainment wound up by the landlord kissing all the old ladies present.

A rather singular death occurred in Rosh Bottom on the 9th of January. The infant child of John and Mary Gunkel, aged five months, was found dead at the side of its mother. The child was apparently in a healthy state, and no premonitory symptoms of disease had been noticed. Imagine the surprise of the parents, when the little pilgrim was discovered to be cold in death!

We regret to learn that Wm. Brown, one of the oldest citizens of Holt county, of the East Rulo settlement, is seriously prostrated with pneumonia fever. His son James is also sick with a severe bilious attack. The continued indisposition of Mr. Brown has very materially reduced him in circumstances, and his farm has gone to waste for want of attention.

We met Amos Stevens, son of Robt. Stevens, at the installation at woods the other night. He resides in Smith county, Kansas, and from him we gather much useful information concerning that interesting portion of the West.

A Mr. Act of Sumner county, Kansas, is sojourning temporarily in this county. Sumner county joins the Cherokee Nation, and has an abundance of good land, water and timber. The grasshoppers did not devastate that far south.

Jefferson Drake, the attentive janitor of our public school building, is an early riser. The colder the weather the earlier he has to get up, to enable him to heat the furnaces and warm up the school rooms. Nothing like being up and doing.

Wallace Downs, is one of the canvassing agents in Holt county for that interesting book, the Moral History of America's Life Struggle. He also canvasses for the book entitled, The True History of the Brooklyn Scandal.

Eddie, a three year old son of Edward Richards of Benton township, departed this life on the 29th day of December—cause croup.

They have an interesting slugging class at the Culps' School House, with a Mr. McCallen, of Kansas, as teacher. It meets every Tuesday and Saturday evening.

Master Willie Wilson caught a live owl the other day in his father's barn. When the bird was taken to the house it gave "up the ghost."

The "week of prayer" which was observed at the German Church in this city, closed last Sunday night. This week a protracted meeting has been commenced which promises to be productive of much good.

The County Court will convene in this city next Monday, the 18th.

The holiday vacation being over,

County News.

George Hobson who resides 24 miles south of Oregon, has for the last ten days, suffered intensely by reason of a cartth in one of his hands. The hand has swollen fearfully, and broke both in the palm and back of hand.

Craig, Mo., boasts of a man now 64 years of age, who has accumulated a handsome property, and he has never gone in debt, never gave a note and has never been a witness in court.—St. Joe Standard.

We regret to learn that our esteemed friend, James Browning, brother of Napoleon Browning, is afflicted with the Arkansas fever. We hope he may soon get over it and make up his mind to stay in Holt.

Acres Win.—It is said "four acres always win." Mr. A. P. Davenport, of Craig, is a little proud of his new mill, the Holt County Steam Flour Mill, which he has just finished at that place. He intends to make only the best family flour, and that he may be sure to win, he will brand the same "Four Acres." He will produce, also, "Three Acres," and he proposes to make an enviable reputation for these brands of flour from his mill. As he will do custom work, the farmers in that section will find the steam mill always ready to "grind a grain," and the business men of Craig town soon learn that a steam flour mill is a mine of wealth to their growing town.—St. Joseph Standard.

Gen. Geo. H. Hall of St. Joe, came up on Friday, the 8th, intending to take a look at a piece of land which he owns in the central portion of the county. The weather turned suddenly very cold compelling the General to abandon his pleasure trip. He took refuge under the hospitable roof of Andy Meyer, who entertained his guest with, the best that Holt county afforded. In the morning, whilst the thermometer stood at 20° below zero, Mr. Meyer accompanied the General to town, where they paid their compliments to the Sheriff's Office. They thought Old Boreas was doing his prettiest to freshen up the atmosphere for this part of the world.

James Curtis, sr., and James Curtis, Jr., consummated a trade the other day by which the junior got possession of the old family homestead and the 125 acres of land connected therewith.

Bertha, infant daughter of August Berres of this city departed this life December 27th, aged, only two weeks.

The severe weather of Friday and Saturday last week was "rough" on the porkers that were driven to the railroad station at Forbes. Quite a number of hogs perished from the cold. John Kunkel, seven head, and Messrs. John Hornecker, Young, Kurtz, Reynolds lost each one hog. There is great dissatisfaction among the farmers in the manner in which the agent of the Kansas City firm that engaged the hogs, treated them. He had agreed to receive the hogs on Friday, but did not do it until Saturday. During the severe night between Friday and Saturday many of the hogs lost their grade by shrinkage. It is alleged that our farmers lost hundreds of dollars by the loss of grade.

Our friends in East Rulo, Holt county, had a great good time at one of the neighbor's houses on New Years day. Our young folks were there in force, accompanied by their fathers and mothers. And the oldest settlers say they never had such a good time. The entertainment wound up by the landlord kissing all the old ladies present.

A rather singular death occurred in Rosh Bottom on the 9th of January. The infant child of John and Mary Gunkel, aged five months, was found dead at the side of its mother. The child was apparently in a healthy state, and no premonitory symptoms of disease had been noticed. Imagine the surprise of the parents, when the little pilgrim was discovered to be cold in death!

We regret to learn that Wm. Brown, one of the oldest citizens of Holt county, of the East Rulo settlement, is seriously prostrated with pneumonia fever. His son James is also sick with a severe bilious attack. The continued indisposition of Mr. Brown has very materially reduced him in circumstances, and his farm has gone to waste for want of attention.

We met Amos Stevens, son of Robt. Stevens, at the installation at woods the other night. He resides in Smith county, Kansas, and from him we gather much useful information concerning that interesting portion of the West.

A Mr. Act of Sumner county, Kansas, is sojourning temporarily in this county. Sumner county joins the Cherokee Nation, and has an abundance of good land, water and timber. The grasshoppers did not devastate that far south.

Jefferson Drake, the attentive janitor of our public school building, is an early riser. The colder the weather the earlier he has to get up, to enable him to heat the furnaces and warm up the school rooms. Nothing like being up and doing.

Wallace Downs, is one of the canvassing agents in Holt county for that interesting book, the Moral History of America's Life Struggle. He also canvasses for the book entitled, The True History of the Brooklyn Scandal.

Eddie, a three year old son of Edward Richards of Benton township, departed this life on the 29th day of December—cause croup.

They have an interesting slugging class at the Culps' School House, with a Mr. McCallen, of Kansas, as teacher. It meets every Tuesday and Saturday evening.

Master Willie Wilson caught a live owl the other day in his father's barn. When the bird was taken to the house it gave "up the ghost."

The "week of prayer" which was observed at the German Church in this city, closed last Sunday night. This week a protracted meeting has been commenced which promises to be productive of much good.

The County Court will convene in this city next Monday, the 18th.

The holiday vacation being over,

County News.

George Hobson who resides 24 miles south of Oregon, has for the last ten days, suffered intensely by reason of a cartth in one of his hands. The hand has swollen fearfully, and broke both in the palm and back of hand.

Craig, Mo., boasts of a man now 64 years of age, who has accumulated a handsome property, and he has never gone in debt, never gave a note and has never been a witness in court.—St. Joe Standard.

We regret to learn that our esteemed friend, James Browning, brother of Napoleon Browning, is afflicted with the Arkansas fever. We hope he may soon get over it and make up his mind to stay in Holt.

Acres Win.—It is said "four acres always win." Mr. A. P. Davenport, of Craig, is a little proud of his new mill, the Holt County Steam Flour Mill, which he has just finished at that place. He intends to make only the best family flour, and that he may be sure to win, he will brand the same "Four Acres." He will produce, also, "Three Acres," and he proposes to make an enviable reputation for these brands of flour from his mill. As he will do custom work, the farmers in that section will find the steam mill always ready to "grind a grain," and the business men of Craig town soon learn that a steam flour mill is a mine of wealth to their growing town.—St. Joseph Standard.

Gen. Geo. H. Hall of St. Joe, came up on Friday, the 8th, intending to take a look at a piece of land which he owns in the central portion of the county. The weather turned suddenly very cold compelling the General to abandon his pleasure trip. He took refuge under the hospitable roof of Andy Meyer, who entertained his guest with, the best that Holt county afforded. In the morning, whilst the thermometer stood at 20° below zero, Mr. Meyer accompanied the General to town, where they paid their compliments to the Sheriff's Office. They thought Old Boreas was doing his prettiest to freshen up the atmosphere for this part of the world.

James Curtis, sr., and James Curtis, Jr., consummated a trade the other day by which the junior got possession of the old family homestead and the 125 acres of land connected therewith.

Bertha, infant daughter of August Berres of this city departed this life December 27th, aged, only two weeks.

The severe weather of Friday and Saturday last week was "rough" on the porkers that were